

Real Estate Institute is seeking an experienced insurance professional to teach ethics courses across the Chicagoland area and online. The right candidate will be a skilled public speaker who interacts easily with audiences and who can demonstrate a wide range of insurance-related knowledge.

This contract position is perfect for someone with a flexible schedule. The candidate we select will be trained to instruct Real Estate Institute's highly regarded insurance continuing education curriculum for in-person classes and live-streamed webinars.

Responsibilities include:

- Teaching 3-hour ethics classes to licensed insurance producers at various Chicagoland locations and via live-streamed webinar at our Niles office.
- Building a positive, nonjudgmental classroom environment where the exchange of competing ideas and opinions is highly encouraged.
- Adhering to professional and educational standards set by the company's Director of Insurance Education.
- Communicating promptly with the company's Class Coordinator regarding work schedules and committing to teach approximately 2-3 classes per month. (Scheduling is typically confirmed 3-8 weeks in advance.)

For consideration, you must satisfy all of the following criteria:

- At least five years of full-time work experience in an insurance-related position (sales, underwriting, claims handling, compliance, insurance law, etc.).
- Teaching and/or public speaking experience that demonstrates your excellent communication skills. (As part of the interviewing process, you will be required to make a brief, introductory speech to a small audience.)
- A friendly demeanor and an ability to create positive student interactions through facilitation of group discussions.
- A willingness to learn and adapt to new technology.
- The ability to project integrity and an obvious respect for business ethics.
- Working knowledge of all major lines of insurance (life, health, property and casualty), as well as the major laws and rules that impact Illinois insurance professionals.
- Personal or business experience with social media.
- Reliable self-starter who can work independently.
- Proficiency in common Microsoft Office programs (particularly PowerPoint).
- Access to a reliable automobile or other mode of transportation. (Punctual arrival for class instruction is required 100% of the time.)

The following items are also highly desirable:

- Flexibility to work on Saturdays from time to time.
- At least two years of experience in commercial lines of insurance.
- Experience developing courses or designing presentations and materials.
- Experience attending or hosting webinars.

Benefits:

- None. This is a contract position.
